I am going to specialize in Environmental/Natural Resource issues. My thesis project is currently undecided. It will probably focus on either the economics of water usage in Florida or on the economic factors involved in the spread of Invasive Alien Species in Florida waterways.
SACKS, Daniel	2007	FIRST YEAR MED STUDENT Vanderbilt Medical School
SCHNEIDER, Andrew David	2007	FORECAST ANALYST Exactech, Inc. Gainesville, FL	Utilizing my degree in a position that involves strategic demand & supply planning. While I still get to advise as an economist in this role, the supply chain management responsibilities are extremely interesting. My work provides great satisfaction in finding new ways to link the two studies together to meet the needs of the company. I hope to be coming back to UF to further my supply chain management education in one of the MBA programs within the next couple of years. GO GATORS!!!
